Canadians Are Given Credit for Checking German Rush

LONDON, April 27 .- To the Canadians belong the honor of spoiling the German plan in Flanders, according to a dispatch to the Daily Mail from its corespondent in northern France. They were supported, in turn, by a French orce, by zouaves, by Belgians and by English regiments. The guns they lost temporarily were not behind their line.

First-Severe fighting to the northeast of Ypres still continues, the general situation remaining unchanged. Our left flank, in readjusting its line to meet the altered conditions, due to the original forced retirement of the French, had to face to the north and to extend to the west beyond St. Julien. This extension weakened our line for a time, and after a gallant resistance by the Canadians against superior numbers St. Julien was captured by the enemy. Our lines now run south of that place.

Tyree's Headache

They act with wonderderful effect - because they not only remove the pain, but they remove the cause. Not like the opiates-that are dangerous to take. Tyree's Tablets are absolutely harmless. They are not "pain-killers"-but pain curers.
